

Franklin County HISTORIC HOMES TOUR

Sponsored by: The Person Place Preservation Society • Louisburg, North Carolina

SAT., APRIL 18, 2009 • 9AM-5PM
SUN., APRIL 19, 2009 • 1PM-5PM

INFORMATION & TICKETS:

(919)496-7193 or (919)554-4902 or www.franklinarts.org

Your ticket is good for both days in case you cannot see everything in one day!
*All email should be sent to: fcheritageart@gmail.com

Advance Tickets $12.00

May be purchased at:

The Coffee Hound Bookshop, Louisburg • (919) 496-6030
The Franklin Times, Louisburg • (919) 496-6503
Antiques Emporium, Raleigh • (919) 834-7250
Suzanna's Antiques, N. Raleigh • (919) 844-2652
Hardware Cafe, Warrenton • (252) 257-2779
The Cotton Company, Wake Forest • (919) 570-0087
Remember When Antiques, Oxford • (919) 693-3112

Tickets Day of Tour $15.00

Available at The Person Place • 605 N. Main St., Louisburg, NC
Day of Tour Phone (919)496-5502

Ticket Purchase by Mail:

The Person Place Preservation Society • PO Box 135, Louisburg, NC

In the past two-hundred years, Franklin County has been home to a governor, poets, statesmen, authors and other prominent Southern figures. The historic homes chosen for this tour have retained the charm and significance of our Southern heritage. Join us on this special journey to celebrate our appreciation of life in the past entwined with life in the 21st century!

HISTORIC HOMES/SITES ON TOUR

The Person Place (circa 1790)	Patterson-Noble-Baker House (circa 1824)
Woodleaf (early 1800's)	Perry-Timberlake House (early 1800's)
Franklin Academy (1804)	Cascade Mill
Allen-Bruton House (1908)	Perry House (Cascade: Circa 1780's)
Wheless House (mid 1900's)	DeHart Botanical Gardens
Stovall-Rigsbee House (circa 1898)

During this special weekend you are invited to enjoy a walk through the DeHart Botanical Gardens. These local gardens and nature trails attract bird watchers, botanists and naturalists! The gardens are located south of Louisburg on Hwy. 401 and this weekend are open to the public from sunrise to sunset.
Address: 3585 US Hwy. 401 S., Louisburg, NC
(Garden entrance is 300 yards north of the mailbox sign.)

Saturday, April 18, 2009 • 11:00 am - 2:00 pm

The Person Place will feature: A Colonial Soup Lunch $6.00 • 605 N. Main St., Louisburg, NC
Local Heritage/Colonial Artisans, Dulcimer & Guitar Music, Heirloom Plant Sale & Bakery Table
Local Heritage Art includes spinning (wool is from a local farm), pottery, fine arts, horsehair jewelry, canvas floorcloths (demo) and encaustics on wood panels (demo).
(Open to the public.)

Sunday, April 19, 2009

Visitors are invited to attend the 11:00 a.m. Sunday Worship Service at one of the four Century Churches in the downtown Louisburg Historic District. The church has been at the heart of small town America in the South for well over a hundred years.

First Baptist Church (1890)(1925:current bldg.), corner of E. College and Spring streets.
Louisburg United Methodist Church (1901), corner of E. Noble and N. Main streets.
St. Paul's Episcopal Church (1903), corner of Church St. and Sunset Ave.
Louisburg Baptist Church (1904), corner of Middle and N. Main streets.